House Officer
Jinnah Postgraduate Medical Center/CMC Hospital

With a comprehensive house job experience at a tertiary care hospitals, I have gained versatile expertise in surgery, emergency and accident care, medicine. This background encompasses surgical procedures, critical patient management, and internal medicine providing a solid foundation for my future medical endeavors.

Accident & Emergency :: JPMC

Responsible for triaging patients, providing immediate medical interventions, and stabilizing individuals in critical conditions.

General Medicine :: JPMC

I have managed patients with various medical conditions, conducted diagnostic evaluations, and formulated treatment plans. This experience likely included a broad spectrum of medical cases, allowing you to develop a strong foundation in internal medicine

Ophthalmology :: CMCH

During my house job at the ophthalmology ward in a tertiary care hospital, I conduct patient assessments, assist in surgeries, prescribe treatments, perform minor procedures, educate patients, collaborate with healthcare professionals, participate in rounds, document patient care, adhere to hospital protocols, and continue my education in ophthalmology.

General Surgery :: CMCH

I had the opportunity of Preparing patients, pre/post op care, assist in scheduling, scrub in on the surgeries. I had also arranged the resources for the OT/ surgeries to go smoothly.
